Convention Rules of Order

THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF EAST TENNESSEE
42nd ANNUAL CONVENTION – FEBRUARY 20-21, 2026
RULES OF ORDER

For adoption by Convention at the opening of business Saturday, February 21, 2026

(The Rules of Order presented herein remain unchanged since approval by Bishop and Council in 2023 except where dates and grammatical corrections have been applied)

The 42nd Annual Meeting of the Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of East Tennessee will be held in person at the Episcopal School of Knoxville, Tennessee, on February 20 & 21, 2026, with certain Pre-Convention Committee proceedings conducted in advance electronically by remote attendance. Certain modifications of the provisions for Pre-Convention Committee proceedings and meetings of the Convention in the Canons and Rules of Order are set forth in these Rules of Order to accommodate the limited scope of Committee business pursuant to an electronic meeting.

I. ORDER OF BUSINESS

- Rule 1.01: The Order of Business shall be specified and approved by the Convention.
- Rule 1.02: During balloting, the Convention may take up business, which may be interrupted for the reports of tellers and additional ballots.

II. CONVENTION COMMITTEES

- Rule 2.01: The Bishop shall appoint the following Convention Committees: On Credentials, On Elections, On General Resolutions.
- Rule 2.02: The Bishop shall appoint the following committees as prescribed by the Canons or as otherwise required: On Constitution and Canons.
- Rule 2.03: Such Committees as are instructed by the Bishop shall convene in advance of the opening of Convention to consider matters referred to them. Open hearings of said committees held prior to Convention shall be subject to prior notice for access and participation by means of remote attendance and may be held in accordance with these rules.
- Rule 2.04: Certain pre-Convention Committee proceedings and pre-Convention business may be conducted, pursuant to notice of specific business to be taken up, through use of an Internet meeting service designated by the Bishop that supports anonymous voting and visible displays (a) identifying those participating, (b) identifying those seeking recognition to speak, (c) showing or permitting the retrieval of the text of pending motions, and (d) showing the results of votes, if any. These electronic meetings of the Convention committees shall otherwise be subject to all rules adopted by the Convention to govern its annual meeting, which may include any reasonable limitations on and requirements for members' participation. Each delegate registered and attending the 2026 Annual Convention by the use of, or a means of, communications by which all delegates and/or members participating in the Convention may simultaneously hear each other shall be deemed to be present in person, and/or present and voting, as applicable, under these Rules of Order.

- Rule 2.05: Unless otherwise indicated, and with respect to balloting at Convention as described in Section 8.02, the following procedures shall apply only to the pre-Convention Committee meetings and proceedings:

- A. Voting shall be conducted using anonymous voting software accessible over the Internet to all delegates unless a different method available through the Internet meeting service is ordered by the Bishop. An anonymous vote conducted through the designated voting software or through the Internet meeting service shall be deemed a ballot vote, fulfilling any requirement in the Constitution or Canons or rules of order that a vote be conducted by ballot. Votes shall be deemed anonymous so long as votes cast by an individual are available only to the administrator of the voting system.
- B. Except when a vote via the voting platform is required, business may be conducted by unanimous consent, as expressed through the “raised hands” function of the Internet meeting platform.
- C. Delegates shall identify themselves as required to sign in to the Internet meeting/voting service, and shall maintain at a minimum audio access throughout the meeting whenever present, though internet audio and video access is preferred.
- D. If required for pre-Convention Committee business, the presence of a quorum shall be established by the online list of participating delegates.
- E. Each delegate (or Convention Committee participant) is responsible for access and quality of their audio and internet connections necessary to participate; no pre-Convention Committee action shall be invalidated on the grounds that a delegate’s or participant’s individual connection prevented participation in the meeting.
- F. In addition to display of pending business, motions or results of votes at Convention, or in connection with Convention Committees’ pre-Convention business, if any, video of the Bishop and any officer or delegate currently recognized to speak or report shall be displayed throughout the meeting, as well as such other video displays as the Bishop designates in his discretion.
- G. The procedure to be recognized for a motion, to seek the floor, to cast a vote, or for any other action by a delegate during the virtual meeting or at any pre-Convention meetings shall be governed by the provided instructions for using the features of the Internet meeting service to conduct business.

- Rule 2.06: Reports of all Committees shall be in writing. All reports recommending action by the Convention shall be accompanied by Resolutions for such action.

III. RESOLUTIONS

- Rule 3.01: Resolutions are submitted as the Canons may prescribe.
- Rule 3.02: All Resolutions and amendments proposed thereto shall be in writing and shall contain the name, parish, and city of the proponent and meet the deadline as set forth in Title I, Canon 3, Sec. 10.
- Rule 3.03: The Bishop shall refer all Resolutions to appropriate Convention Committees for consideration, recommendation, and report to the Convention; provided, however, upon a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the delegates present, a Resolution may be considered immediately.

- Rule 3.04: Where two or more Resolutions deal basically with the same subject, they shall be referred to the same General Resolutions Committee. The Committee shall make every effort to consolidate them or otherwise assure their compatibility and should also make every effort to obtain the concurrence of the proponents concerned.
- Rule 3.05: Each Convention Committee to which a Resolution has been referred, after providing for an open hearing held remotely in the days leading up to the convention, shall consider the form and substance of the Resolution and in making its report shall recommend (a) for adoption, (b) for adoption with amendment, (c) for adoption of a substitute drafted by the Committee, (d) for rejection, or (e) for discharge from further consideration because the subject matter has been included in another Resolution. The Committee's recommendation to the Convention shall be in the form of a motion to adopt the Committee's recommendation. The Committee Chair or other representative shall state the reasons for the Committee's recommendation. Thereafter, the proponent of the original Resolution, which is the subject of the Committee's recommendation, shall be recognized first if the proponent so desires. Amendments may be offered, including an amendment to substitute the proponent's original Resolution for that recommended by the Committee.

If all the Deputies to the General Convention are not elected on the first ballot, the remainder are to be elected from the remaining nominees by majority on the second ballot, and if all are not elected on the second ballot, the remainder are to be elected from the remaining nominees by plurality on the third ballot. - Rule 13.02: In accordance with Title 1 Canon 3 Sec. 6.(a), the Rules of Order from the previous convention are in force for the succeeding Convention unless, in order to adapt to changing circumstances that inform the Ecclesiastical Authority's decisions around convening digital or in person conventions, consistent with the said Canon, these Rules of Order may be modified and/or amended by action and authority of Bishop and Council in between conventions in anticipation of adoption with amendments at the start of the succeeding Convention.

Consent Agenda and Supporting Information

A consent agenda is a meeting practice by which routine reports or non-controversial items not requiring discussion or independent action are presented as one agenda item. The clergy and delegates approve this “package” of items in one motion. This practice is used to save precious meeting time.

If any clergy or delegate wishes to remove any item from the Consent Agenda for discussion, they may do so with a motion during the discussion period after the Consent Agenda is moved and seconded. The motion to remove any item requires a second and a simple majority vote.

Consent agenda items can only be removed for discussion and not clarification. If any clergy or delegate member needs clarification of an item, this needs to be accomplished prior to the Business Meeting by contacting the Secretary of Convention.

Detailed information about each item on the Consent Agenda is provided below. By voting yes to the motion to approve the Consent Agenda, you are voting yes on the following:

- Election of 2026 Convention Officers
- Resolutions 2026-01, 2026-02, 2026-03
- Rules of Order (pages 10-16)

BISHOP AND COUNCIL

Bishop and Council Positions Open

1 Clergy Middle East

Term: Three-year terms ending in 2029.

The Bishop and Council (B&C) comprises the Bishop, the Dean of St. John's Cathedral, plus ten lay and clerical members who represent each of the three geographical areas of the diocese—two of each from the South East and Middle East areas and one of each from the Upper East Area.

Among its responsibilities, B&C prepares the diocesan budget to be approved by Diocesan Convention and approves grants and loans recommended by the Opportunity Fund Committee. Members may serve on the Opportunity Fund and other council committees: Budget and Finance, the Diocesan Council on Youth Ministry, or Diocesan Convention. Each term is three years. Clergy and lay members may not be from the same parish, and members must be 18 years old or more. Bishop and Council members may not serve simultaneously on the Standing Committee. Members gather four to six times a year for meetings at the Diocesan House in Knoxville. As valued leaders in the diocese, members of Bishop & Council are also asked to attend an annual overnight Leadership Summit.

Please see Rule 8.03 of the Diocese of East Tennessee Annual Convention Rules of Order for specific provisions governing the election of members of Bishop and Council.

In the event the diocese is without a bishop, the Standing Committee serves as the ecclesiastical authority until the diocese elects a new bishop.

The Standing Committee schedules monthly meetings, but sometimes it conducts business via e-mail or conference call. As valued leaders in the diocese, members of Standing Committee are also asked to attend an annual overnight Leadership Summit.

The Standing Committee has six members, three clergy and three lay. One clergy and one lay member rotate off each year. Each member's term is three years, and they may be re-elected for one successive term. Members of the Standing Committee may not serve simultaneously on the Bishop and Council, Commission on Ministry, or Disciplinary Board.

1 Lay, term ending 2029

1 Clergy, term ending 2029

* Disciplinary Board members typically serve for three year terms; this year we are also electing one member to fill a vacancy.

The Disciplinary Board is unique among our elected leadership bodies in that it does not convene for meetings on a regular schedule. The disciplinary board meets once annually for an orientation, and then serves through the remainder of the year as a pool of members from which panels may be drafted as needed. The ideal qualities of a good disciplinary board member include sound judgement and the ability to listen carefully. This board is comprised of seven persons, four members of the clergy and three lay. Clergy members must be canonically and geographically resident within the diocese, and lay members must be adult communicants in good standing who are geographically resident in the diocese. Members of the Standing Committee may not also be members of the Disciplinary Board. Functions of the Disciplinary Board are listed in the Canons of The Episcopal Church, Title IV.

GENERAL CONVENTION DEPUTY

General Convention Deputy Positions Open

4 Clergy deputies and 4 alternates

4 Lay deputies and 4 alternates

Three-year terms ending 2029

Four clergy and four lay people are elected in the year prior to that of a General Convention. The scale of votes determines each deputy's seat and order of alternates in accords with Convention Rule 8.03. Deputies serve for three years—until the next group is elected—and they may be elected to successive terms. Indeed, in some respects, the stability of a deputation relies on a healthy mix of new and experienced deputies.

Deputies sit in the House of Deputies of the General Convention, which is the legislative body of the Episcopal Church. The House of Bishops is the other unit in this bicameral body. Deputies are not delegates; they are deputized to act on their own and to vote their own consciences. Experienced deputies may represent the Diocese of East Tennessee on national committees.

In the Diocese of East Tennessee, deputies will attend an orientation and spring gathering in 2027. They also attend additional deputation meetings, Province IV Synod meetings, and then the 82nd General Convention (July 3-8, 2027 in Phoenix, Arizona).

At the General Convention, they consider resolutions, elect officials, establish a budget, pray, and worship together. The schedule is full and the opportunities to connect with other leaders in our denomination are vast. When they return, they are asked to interpret for East Tennessee Episcopalians, along with the Bishop, the actions and decisions of the convention.

Amendment to Title II. Assets of the Diocese and Parishes

PROPOSED BY: The Honorable L. Marie Williams, St. Paul's Chattanooga, Chair of Constitution and Canons Committee on behalf of the committee

REPRESENTATIVE AT CONVENTION: The Honorable L. Marie Williams

RESOLVED, That Title II Canon 3 Sec.6 be amended to replace the following language:

Sec. 6. All cash receipts of the Diocese or of any Parish, Organization, or Institution of the Diocese shall be deposited promptly in a bank or savings institution in an account fully insured by FDIC or FSLIC. The entity responsible for said funds may adopt procedures regarding the withdrawal, disbursement, or investment of such funds after the deposit thereof.

With the following language:

Sec. 6. All cash receipts of the Diocese or of any Parish, Organization, or Institution of the Diocese shall be deposited promptly in a federally insured depository bank or savings institution (FDIC) or credit union (NCUSIF), in one or more checking, savings, certificate of deposit and money market accounts fully insured. The entity responsible for said funds may adopt procedures regarding the withdrawal, disbursement, or investment of such funds after the deposit thereof.

EXPLANATION OF THE RESOLUTION:

The Proposed Revision addresses the need to insure deposits with a federally insured depository while leaving room to address changing banking needs of parishes. Specifically, the changes in Sec 6. addresses there no longer exists a FSLIC organization and that credit union deposit accounts are insured. There may be other depositories used by Parishes that need to be insured by the Federal Government.

THE DIOCESE OF EAST TENNESSEE
2026 DIOCESAN CONVENTION
Resolution # 2026-05

Toward the Full Communion Agreement between The Episcopal Church and the United Methodist Church

PROPOSED BY: The Rev. RJ Powell, Priest-in-Charge, St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Maryville, and Diocesan Ecumenical and Interreligious Officer

REPRESENTATIVE AT CONVENTION: The Rev. RJ Powell

RESOLVED, That the 42nd Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of East Tennessee, in the sincere belief that Jesus calls us into unity for the sake of mission and ministry, shown in his prayer for his disciples, "that they may all be one," welcomes and rejoices in the full communion proposal between The Episcopal Church and the United Methodist Church, A Gift to the World: Co-Laborers in the Healing of Brokenness; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this Convention gives thanks that this full communion proposal, the result of over sixty years of dialogue between Episcopalians and Methodists, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, is grounded in our common heritage in the Church of England, and in the recognition that both churches are members of the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church in which the Gospel is rightly preached and taught; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this Convention celebrates the special gifts that the Holy Spirit has bestowed on each church, reflected in their historical documents and liturgies, hymnody and spirituality, and commitments to outreach and social justice; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this Convention affirms our desire to draw closer to our Methodist siblings in mission by sharing in the proclamation of the Good News of God's love in Jesus Christ in word and deed; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this Convention pledges to address racism together in our churches and communities, and when possible, learning from and working with the historically African American Methodist churches in our area, noting that church divisions in the US have often reflected racial and socioeconomic divisions; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this Convention acknowledges the ministries in which Methodists and Episcopalians are already working together in our Diocese, such as the cooperation of the Wesley Foundation and Tyson House campus ministries at UT Knoxville and the cooperation of a number of churches throughout Knoxville in Justice Knox, including Episcopalians and Methodists, and pledges our commitment to continue and grow such ministries; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this Convention commends A Gift to the World to all the members of our Diocese, for reading, reflection, and discussion both within our congregations and in an ecumenical context with our Methodist siblings, and when possible, also with Christians of other traditions, especially our full communion partners in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and The Moravian Church; and be it further

RESOLVED. That this Convention encourages on both a local and diocesan level, common worship, including services of Holy Eucharist, following the guidelines for Interim Eucharistic Sharing with the United Methodist Church released in 2006; and be it further

RESOLVED. That this Convention directs our clergy and lay leaders, working with their Methodist colleagues, to plan and implement actions consistent with this work; and be it further

RESOLVED. That this Convention encourages the approval of the full communion proposal at the General Convention in 2027, and to the ongoing work of Christian unity in worship and service in the years to come.

EXPLANATION OF THE RESOLUTION:

The best explanation for this resolution comes from the full communion document itself:

“In the fractured human community there is a great need for the realization of the unity among the followers of Christ Jesus. This proposal for full communion between The Episcopal Church and The United Methodist Church is an effort to bring our churches into closer partnership in the mission and witness to the love of God and thus labor together for the healing of divisions among Christians and for the well-being of all. The vision of Revelation 22 is of the tree of life planed on both sides of a river “and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.” (Revelation 22:2) Faithful to Jesus’ prayer that his disciples be one so that the world may believe (John 17:20-23), may this proposal be an expression of God’s will for the churches.” – from the Preface, A Gift to the World: Co-Laborers for the Healing of Brokenness – A Proposal for Full Communion.

Note that “full communion” is not a merger of the churches. “Full communion is understood as a relationship between two distinct ecclesiastical bodies in which each maintains its own autonomy while recognizing the catholicity and apostolicity of the other, and believing the other to hold the essentials of the Christian faith. In such a relationship, communicant members of each would be able freely to communicate at the altar of the other, and ordained ministers [i.e. priests and elders] may officiate sacramentally in either church. Specifically, this includes transferability of members, mutual recognition and interchangeability of ministries, mutual enrichment by one another’s traditions of hymnody and patterns of liturgy, freedom to participate in each other’s ordinations and installations of clergy, including bishops, and structures for consultation to express, strengthen, and enable our common life, witness, and service, to the glory of God and the salvation of the world.” (From A Gift to the World)

The historically African American churches include, but are not limited to those churches with whom The Episcopal Church and the United Methodist Church have consulted: the African Methodist Episcopal Church (AME), the African Methodist Episcopal Church Zion (AME Zion), and the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church (CME). In addition to the AME, AME Zion and CME, The United Methodist Church, through the Pan Methodist Commission, has also engaged in dialogues with the African Union Methodist Protestant Church and the Union American Methodist Episcopal Church, and formally ratified full communion in 2012. The United Methodist Church approved the full communion agreement with the Episcopal Church. A Gift to the World, in 2024, and awaits the Episcopal Church’s decision at the 2027 General Convention.

The Standing Committee fulfilled its canonical role as the Bishop's Council of Advice, meeting with Bishop Cole on several occasions. These discussions included a wide variety of issues and matters concerning the Diocese, including welcoming and meeting with new members of the Diocesan staff, being updated regularly on clergy transitions and vacancies within the Diocese, and participating along with members of the Commission on Ministry and Examining Chaplains in a summit regarding the discernment process for ordination.

Closing

On a personal note, I am deeply grateful for the privilege of serving on the Standing Committee alongside my fellow members over the past three years. It has been an honor to work with colleagues who have approached this ministry with such faithfulness, dedication, and generosity of spirit. I am also thankful to Bishop Cole for his willingness to meet with us, to listen, and to engage in thoughtful conversation around the matters before us. His receptiveness to our concerns and perspectives has enriched our work and strengthened our shared sense of purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

Douglas Overbey, President of the Standing Committee

Strategic Visioning Report to the 42nd Convention of the Diocese of East Tennessee

Over the course of the past 18 months, we have collectively (as a diocese) been discerning who we are and what we are called to be. We have, together, attempted to discern what the Spirit of God is calling us to become in East Tennessee. In order to facilitate that process on a diocesan level and facilitate us naming what we've been hearing in that discernment process, Bishop Cole assembled a Strategic Visioning Team, which was comprised of the Bishop, Emily Kirk, Rev. April Berends, Rev. Amy Morehous, Beverly Hurley Hill, and me.

We were asked to develop a clear document that can be used as a guide post for our shared ministry. We wanted clear and honest statements regarding our diocesan identify, purpose, and unique gifts. Put differently, the goal was to answer to questions: (1) Who are we? and (2) What is God calling us to do?

In order to answer those questions with integrity, we carried out a wide range of listening sessions. We wanted broad participation and buy-in, given our presumption that the diocese is not the same as the Diocesan House. We are collectively the Episcopal Diocese of East Tennessee. The specific purpose of the listening sessions was to engage as many members of the diocese in holy conversations as was possible, hearing from a vast number of experiences and perspectives.

We engaged diocesan decision makers, the South East's Clericus, the Standing Committee, the diocesan youth, parish delegations at last year's convention, the middle region's Clericus, leaders of ministry with children, the Upper East's Clericus, and the Diocesan staff with a series of targeted questions: (1) What is the primary role of the diocese? (2) What makes the Diocese of East Tennessee distinctive, unique, or different? (3) What spiritual or ethical challenge do you think the diocese of East Tennessee is facing and should attend to? (4) What is your dream for the diocese of East Tennessee over the next three to five years?

These listening sessions provided a massive data set. We heard from over 500 participants from more than 45 communities and groups across the diocese. The Strategic Visioning team then read and re-read the discussions, summarized findings, noted trends, and attempted to find throughlines and commonalities across these various demographics. We used those findings to create the following mission and vision statements:

Vision Statement: We seek to be a healthy system of Christ-centered communities marked by prayerful practices, spiritual maturity, faithful action, and joyful worship.

Mission Statement: To equip disciples of Jesus Christ to grow and be grounded in the reconciling witness of the Gospel, for the love of our neighbors and all of God's creation.

Following the creation of these statements, the same group assembled both an annotated study guide (to clarify exactly what was intended with each phrase) and a correlated Bible study. The hope for this was twofold. First was to help clarify to parishes, parishioners, and diocesan clergy exactly what came together in the process. Second was to enable groups to have some structured conversation around these new mission and vision statements, especially in relation to the Church's Biblical witness.

These statements are supposed to be so much more than boilerplate language for the diocesan website. Bishop Cole has been quite clear that he wants to use these mission and vision statements to guide the values, priorities, and work of the Diocese moving forward. This is, after all, a summary of what we—the many people, of various orders and places, who Diocese of East Tennessee—have collectively stated and heard.

In order to facilitate that implementation, we have (in conjunction with Bishop and Council) decided to frame this and the three following diocesan conventions around some of the phrases in these statements. This year's theme is "Equip Disciples." The 2027 theme is "Grow & Be Grounded," the 2028 theme is "Love of Neighbor," and the 2029 theme is "Love of Creation."

Many thanks to all the important voices who helped contribute to the listening sessions.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Zac Settle, PhD

Safe Church Report

The Episcopal Diocese of East Tennessee is committed to welcoming and protecting everyone in our parishes and diocesan life. The Safe Church, Safe Communities courses teach us how exploitation and harassment occur, the awareness we need to prevent such occurrences, and how to respond should an incident of exploitation or harassment occur.

The General Convention of The Episcopal Church adopted various resolutions calling for Model Policy and training updates beginning in 2015, 2018, and 2022. In 2017, The Episcopal Church updated the Model Policies for the Protection of Children and Youth and added a Model Policy for the Protection of Vulnerable Adults. This led to the Safe Church, Safe Communities course being launched in 2021 through Praesidium Academy online. Each diocese was then tasked with adopting and adapting the new policies to meet local protocols. The Diocese of East Tennessee adopted the updated policies and began offering online training courses starting January 1, 2023.

2025 was spent auditing policies and practices. In-person trainings continued and were updated to allow participants to complete Category F or A instead of only having the 4-hour option. In the diocesan office, work was done to build a regional trainer program and to prepare for parish audits to begin in 2026. The regional trainer program will make in-person training even more accessible. This is being piloted in the Chattanooga area and will be rolled out to the other regions once ready. Parish audits will serve as a yearly check-in and will include the acknowledgement of policy that vestries are already required to adopt each spring. This will help parish and diocesan leadership examine where our communities are succeeding and where there is room for growth. This will also be an opportunity for parishes to report back on where they might feel they are struggling and need extra attention.

As of January 19, 2026, 100% of diocesan staff, 85% of active clergy, and 65% of lay convention delegates are up to date with the Safe Church, Safe Communities training requirements. Multiple opportunities are available for delegates to complete their training before February 21st, so these numbers are expected to increase before the business session of Convention is convened.

In 2026, we expect to see the continued growth of the in-person training program through the introduction of Regional Trainers. This means more in-person sessions may be offered throughout the year, making the program even more accessible.

Additionally, a new Safe Church Audit will be introduced. This will take the place of the Annual Adoption form and provide a better perspective of how we can continue to grow the Safe Church program in our parishes and the diocese. The audit will serve as a yearly check-in and will include the acknowledgement of policy that vestries are already required to adopt each spring. This will help leadership identify successes and growth opportunities and will provide parishes with an opportunity to report where they might be struggling and need extra attention. Parish leadership will receive more information if they have not already.

2026 will also see many people go through the re-certification process. Currently, this consists of repeating the same classes as before.

If parishes have questions about any of these initiatives, please contact the diocesan office.

Respectfully submitted, Emily Kirk, Parish Support Specialist

THE 42ND ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE
EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF EAST TENNESSEE

Report from the Carbon Neutral Task Force

In 2024, this Convention passed a resolution requesting that Bishop & Council establish a task force to provide coordination and communication for pursuing a goal of carbon net neutrality by 2030. The Resolution was initiated as a result of Resolution A087, passed by the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in 2022. The Resolution also directed the task force to report yearly to the Diocesan Convention on its progress towards developing information, resources, and guidance on the steps to pursue carbon net neutrality, on the progress made by congregations and diocesan organizations and ministries to develop facility needs assessments, and on any further recommendations to the Diocese regarding reducing facility energy use and increasing facility energy efficiency.

The current Carbon Neutral Task Force members are Jessica Posey-Dowty, St. Michael's, Kingsport; Br. Andrew Morehead, Diocese; Courtney Shea, Church of the Good Shepherd, Knoxville; Courtney Manrod, St. Stephens, Oak Ridge; Kyle Lewis, St. Elizabeth's, Farragut; and Cynthia Coe, St. Elizabeth's, Farragut. We have an email address for the Task Force: carbonneutraltf@dioet.org.

We will lead off with our most recent accomplishment: On Friday, February 20, Bruce Glanville of Energy Home Basics, conducted a “blower test” at the Diocesan House to demonstrate how this technique can assist with identifying areas of energy loss in a building. Hope that you joined us for the demonstration!

The Carbon Neutral section of the Diocesan website provides resources for parishes seeking to understand and control their carbon footprint.

In 2025, our accomplishments included the following:

- a. Added a questionnaire to the 2025 Convention booklet.
- b. Held a Zoom seminar on March 25, which addressed how to get started or to continue on an energy efficiency pathway at a church facility and the TVA incentives available to small businesses. The DIOET website includes the resources developed for the seminar.
- c. Reviewed the responses in the Parochial Reports to the Carbon Neutrality question.
- d. Added questions to upcoming Supplemental Parochial Reports, which will allow calculation of carbon footprint. We ask all parishes to participate in this so that we can begin our calculations.
- e. Br. Andrew gave a November presentation on calculating the carbon footprint for the Diocesan House and for the purchase of carbon credits.
- f. Updates on Diocesan Solar—see DIOET website for video.
- g. Blower test demonstration, described above.

Looking ahead, we hope to co-sponsor a workshop on energy efficiency with other concerned partners, produce a short video about the blower test conducted on February 20, and share case studies from parishes who are taking steps on the path to carbon neutrality.

Formation & Lay Ministry Report to Diocesan Annual Convention #42

This past year has been one of generative work in spiritual formation and lay ministry across the Diocese of East Tennessee. As we look toward the future, we are grateful for the deepened infrastructure supporting the formation journeys of lay leaders and for the expanded programming inviting all the baptized into contemplative discipleship.

The School for Contemplation & Discipleship

The School for Contemplation & Discipleship has emerged as our diocesan home for formation rooted in contemplative practice. Its mission is to cultivate contemplative practices and spiritual disciplines that awaken and deepen baptismal identity, and to support the formation of lay leaders called to ministry in their parishes and communities.

In its first year, the School offered original programming designed to invite people into deeper encounter with God and with themselves. BREATHE Day Retreats, parish-based encounters designed to open space for contemplative renewal, was offered at Thankful Memorial Episcopal Church in Chattanooga. The Sacred Ordinary, launched during Epiphany on our DioET Circle platform, introduced participants to the practice of centering prayer, anchoring contemplative formation in the rhythms of the church year. These offerings were complemented by the Rooted & Ready program, facilitated in partnership with the Rev. Claire Brown, to provide formation and community for those facilitating adult formation groups. A new dimension of community has emerged through our DioET Circle groups established for the School, the Rooted & Ready program, and the Lay Preaching network, creating vessels for ongoing conversation and mutual encouragement.

The School's presence is anchored in its new website, thescd.org, where contemplative resources including Field Guides for Lectio Divina and Centering Prayer are freely accessible. Looking forward, the School will offer Merton's Kentucky: A Contemplative Retreat, a pilgrimage to Gethsemani Abbey, with additional programming in development by the Rev. Casey Perkins centered on labyrinths as tools for contemplative prayer.

Licensed Lay Ministries

The Diocese of East Tennessee licenses lay ministers for Lay Preacher, Catechist, Evangelist, Eucharistic Visitor, and offers a new certificate in Pastoral Care. These licenses recognize God's call of lay members to particular ministries in service of their parishes and the broader church.

This year has been marked by substantial work to strengthen our processes for licensing, license renewal, and formation. Revisions to initial licensure and renewal processes have been completed, as have revisions to the formation curriculum for licensed lay ministries. The Rev. Mandy Lippe and Dr. Freida Herron serve as mentors for the formation of lay preachers, while Canon Emily Bruner Doane supports formation cohorts for all other lay ministries.

Formation Partnerships

The Diocese has intentionally developed partnerships with established organizations that bring expertise and resources to our work of formation. Our partnership with Bexley-Seabury Seminary continues to mature with the launch of a bespoke discernment course this summer, with LLM formation cohorts beginning fall 2026. All cohort members engage with foundational courses in Baptismal Living, Engaging in God's Word, and Theology & Ethics, with pathways diverging for specific ministry focus courses.

The Episcopal Preaching Foundation (EPF) offers vital partnership for Lay Preacher formation. Those preparing for Lay Preacher licensure move into diocesan cohorts facilitated by a EPF-trained clergy and lay person team who have been trained in and implement the EPF Lay Preaching Curriculum. Twelve lay preachers from our diocese attended the inaugural gathering of lay preachers in October. Additional opportunities for continuing education will be offered throughout the year.

Education for Ministry brings together small communities of 6-12 participants for deep theological reflection and spiritual formation through shared study and group engagement. Marking fifty years of ministry in 2025, EfM introduced a new digital platform (Pathwright) and launched a new one-year wide angle view of EfM. In June 2025, mentors gathered at the Diocesan House—both in person and via Zoom—to discuss program developments and strengthen their collaborative leadership. Eleven EfM communities continue to meet throughout East Tennessee each day of the week except Fridays, offering multiple formats: in-person gatherings, virtual meetings via Zoom, or hybrid sessions that integrate both approaches.

The diocese continues its partnership with FORMA, an organization dedicated to Christian formation in the life of faith. Monthly meetings with FORMA leadership ensure ongoing alignment with diocesan formation priorities. Additionally, the diocese makes available free of charge access to the Church Next library of adult formation courses for both groups and individuals. The diocese has established a dedicated page on the diocesan website to highlight Church Next offerings for adult formation, making these resources more visible and accessible to parishes seeking formation support.

Grace Point Report to the 42nd Annual Convention

Grace Point Camp & Retreat Center is pleased to share that we had a wonderful and successful 2025 summer season. This past summer, 326 campers participated in our camp programs, experiencing a vibrant community of worship, fellowship, and outdoor adventure. Over the course of the year, we served a total of 2,305 people through camps, retreats, and special events. We are grateful for the continued support that makes this ministry possible.

In addition to summer camp, Grace Point experienced a strong retreat season, welcoming 39 groups to the Retreat Village and other facilities. These groups represented a wide range of ministries and gatherings, including vestry retreats, youth groups, parish weekends, weddings, and clergy retreats. We continue to hear from participants how restorative and meaningful their time at Grace Point has been, and we are encouraged by the diverse ways individuals and communities are making use of the space.

We are still actively working to pay down the loan from the Retreat Village project and remain optimistic about completing this effort in the near future. Looking ahead, we are beginning early discussions about remodeling the Manley House to ensure it continues to serve the needs of guests and programs in the years to come.

As always, we are grateful for the ongoing prayers and support of the Diocese. Grace Point remains committed to providing a welcoming and transformative place for formation, retreat, and renewal. With continued support, we hope to further improve our facilities, expand our programs, and strengthen our ministry to young people and adults across the Diocese and beyond.

Blessings,

The Rev. Brad Jones

Report from the Archives

The maintenance of the diocesan archives is one of the diverse responsibilities of the office of communications. Beginning this past year, we have taken full advantage of our new network attached storage system by adopting a “digital first” work environment for business records. This has greatly reduced the amount of paper use and temporary document storage in the diocesan archives.

This year, we welcome two persons to the diocesan archives. Ben Gouffon, who also serves as the administrator of Tyson House, has joined the diocesan staff as our part-time Archives & Communications Assistant. Ben’s primary responsibility is to continue the maintenance and digitization of the archives. Joining him is Anne Hawkins, a volunteer from St. John’s Cathedral. Anne will also assist with archives and diocesan house projects. Many thanks to this incredible duo for the work they have already done this year.

We have also received a gift of two unique books from Mr. Ed Smith: a copy of the Diocese of Tennessee’s 1879 convention journal and a copy of History of the Church in the Diocese of Tennessee by Rev. Arthur Howard Noll, originally publishing in 1899. Should you wish to visit the archives, make sure to see these interesting books!

With the closure of St. Columba’s, Bristol, we were able to take in their records and find a new home for the recently renovated Hook and Hastings organ at First Presbyterian Church, Bristol.

The Commission on Religion in Appalachia (CORA) records mentioned in last year’s report have been donated to The University of Kentucky Archives, which holds the primary collection of CORA records. Our records help complete their holdings as Bishop Sanders was the vice-chair of CORA for many years.

Lastly, I would like to reiterate last year’s notice that two resolutions at General Convention were passed regarding the Constitution of The Episcopal Church and the Book of Common Prayer. Please see resolutions A071 and A072 in the journal of the 81st General Convention of The Episcopal Church.

Should your parish have questions about archival work or should you be interested in volunteering, interning, or completing a practicum in our archives, please feel free to reach out to Bro. Andrew Morehead, OC, at amorehead@dioet.org or at 865-966-2110.

Diocesan Youth Ministry Report to Convention 2026

Mission and Purpose

The mission of ETNyouth is to build community where the youth of the Diocese experience the unconditional love of Christ and feel safe to be their most authentic selves. We aim to teach our youth how to form healthy relationships and be active participants in community. We also provide space for our youth to explore their own understanding of faith to nurture spiritual development and empower them to become leaders in the church. Strong diocesan youth ministry harbors more active youth involvement in parishes and long-term engagement in the church.

Approach

We accomplish these goals by offering weekend retreats, mission trips, regional gatherings, outings, and collaborating with Grace Point summer camp. We provide fun opportunities where youth feel welcomed in an unintimidating setting that allows them to build relationships with their peers and gradually open up to exploring what it means to be an Episcopalian and a follower of Christ.

Year in Review

Over the past year, we have sustained a vibrant diocesan youth community through retreats, regional gatherings, and a mission trip. We spent time assessing our programs and implementing new practices and infrastructure to keep our programs and community viable long term.

In August of 2025, we launched our new Diocesan Youth Council (DYC). This council is made up of high school students and adults from around the diocese who are actively involved in our diocesan youth programs. This year we have six adults and 11 youth who have demonstrated their ability to lead and make mature decisions. This group met for a day-retreat in September to assess our current programs, plan out the schedule for the upcoming year, and envision new youth events. We also meet regularly on Zoom to debrief retreats, pick youth leadership for retreats, and discuss any concerns in the community.

Since last year's convention, we have held six ETNyouth retreats at Grace Point. Happening #87, which is our retreat for high school students to explore their faith through talks and small group, was scheduled for the end of February last year. We had a large number of youth who signed up to serve on team, but only a couple of first-time participants, so we pivoted and turned the weekend into a leadership development retreat for the 33 youth who attended. Happening #88 was in November 2025 and had 44 youth attend.

New Beginnings is our middle school retreat that follows the same structure as Happening. New Beginnings #8 was held in April of 2025 and had 50 youth attend. By the time of convention, New Beginnings #9 will have happened over the weekend of February 6-8. At the time that I am writing this, we have 52 youth registered.

In September of 2025, we held a diocesan youth confirmation retreat led by the Revs. Kat Chappell and Zac Settle. This was a new retreat designed to offer a confirmation crash course to youth who either cannot make the time commitment to a semester-long confirmation class or are from a church that lacks the numbers or resources to offer their youth a confirmation class. We had 10 youth from six different parishes attend.

This past month, over MLK Day weekend in January, we held our second annual Winter Camp. Winter Camp is structured similar to a Grace Point summer camp session and is designed to be a laid-back retreat where the youth have a chance to be in community, have fun, and reset at the start of a new semester. The weekend was led by 13 college students who either serve on Grace Point summer staff or work with one of our youth programs around the diocese during the year. We had 34 high school youth attend Winter Camp.

In July of 2025, we took a group of 11 youth and 3 adults on a mission trip to Western North Carolina to help with Hurricane Helene recovery efforts. We stayed at Lake Logan, the camp and conference center for the Diocese of Western North Carolina. We restored campsites and built picnic tables at Lake Logan. Part of the group also spent two days working on Habitat for Humanity houses in Asheville. We raised over $11,000 from gracious donors around the diocese to support this trip, and the remaining funds were donated to Lake Logan for their continued recovery efforts.

Our regional youth ministries in Knoxville and Chattanooga have been active this past year. KnoxEY is a weekly youth group held at Church of the Ascension that is designed to serve all youth in the Knoxville area. This year, they have a rotating team of nine college students that help lead their weekly gatherings, and they have consistently seen 12-15 youth attending each week. ChattEY is a periodic gathering where all of the Chattanooga youth groups gather for a few large events a year. This school year, they kicked things off with roller skating in August and then held their annual gingerbread house competition in December. Both of these events were attended by 50-60 youth.

I want to thank all of our youth leaders and chaperones who make these events possible. I want to thank all of the youth for being active members of this community. I also want to thank all of the parents who support your children being involved in these programs. We are looking forward to another great year ahead!

Tyson House Student Foundation

The Tyson House community continues to faithfully serve the students of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, offering a welcoming space for formation, fellowship, and worship. This past year has brought both transitions and growth as we have deepened our commitment to accompaniment with college students and young adults in their spiritual journeys.

The fall semester brought several noteworthy initiatives. In partnership with the UTK Wesley Foundation, our students participated in a fall retreat at Camp Wesley Woods in Townsend, strengthening ecumenical bonds and providing space for spiritual renewal. We launched a structured academic-year catechism program offering students deeper engagement with Christian faith and Anglican tradition. On the Feast of St. Francis, our community participated in a greenway cleanup with Keep Knoxville Beautiful and the UTK Catholic campus ministry, connecting our faith to care for God's creation.

The weekly rhythm of life at Tyson House centers on prayer, study, fellowship, and service. Sunday evening worship features Eucharist and dinner at 6:04 PM, with music provided by Br. Andrew Morehead from the Diocesan staff. The House remains open for daily prayer and fellowship, with weekly Bible study and catechism gatherings. Smokey's Pantry, our FISH Hospitality food pantry, continues to serve students and community members in need, while regular AA meetings connect us to the wider community.

At the end of the fall semester, Fr. RJ Powell, who served at Tyson House for the last ten years, received a call to serve as Priest-in-Charge at St. Andrew's in Maryville. We are grateful for his dedicated service and vision for Tyson House. Fr. Sean McEwan, Curate at St. Andrew's, now serves as our interim chaplain, while Mr. Ben Gouffon serves as our new Lay Chaplain and Ministry Coordinator.

This ministry thrives because of faithful financial support from the diocese, those who prepare Sunday meals, collect food for Smokey's Pantry, serve on our Council, and most especially, our students embodying Christ to one another and to this campus. We remain grateful for the Diocese's investment in the formation of young adults.

Faithfully submitted on behalf of the Tyson House community,

The Rev. RJ Powell & the Rev. Sean McEwen

Report from Project Canterbury

Project Canterbury had a great 2025! We started the semester talking about St Julian of Norwich, where we learned about her writings and impact on the church in medieval England. We practiced Lectio Divina through the lens of the wise Saint. Project Canterbury helped in assisting Shrove Tuesday, which is always a fantastic time for students to get together, enjoy pancakes, and reflect on ourselves ahead of Lent. Towards the end of March, we partnered in a great service project with ETN youth, where we made hygiene kits for local shelters. At the end of the Spring 2025 semester, we came together to meet at Father Will's house. This is always a great end to the semester as we prepare for summer break. We picked up after summer break with a tea and cake party, welcoming new and current students alike.

This semester, our meetings focused more on how to read the Bible, whether in a prayer/contemplative way, a political way, or for use in daily life. We also discussed the history of the Bible and learned different methods of interpreting scripture. To finalize the year of 2025, we gathered at Father Will's house once again, where we held a gingerbread making competition and wished each other all a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Every week we meet for Project Canterbury, we share a meal. These are often made by one of the students, Father Will, or by a local restaurant. We eat, laugh, and learn about the church and how to grow in our own faith. We end the night in compline in our chapel. Here, we turn off all the lights and pray by the light of handheld candles. We chant hymns, reflect on the words of the prayer, and prepare ourselves for the week ahead with God. 2025 was a successful year for Project Canterbury, creating life-lasting memories with each other, and with great excitement for the year 2026 to come.

Report on Companion Diocese Relationship with Kondoa

Our relationship with our companion diocese in Kondoa, Tanzania continues to flourish in many ways.

A group of 5 pilgrims, the first all female group, were in Tanzania from May 21-June 6.

Initially, the group stayed in Arusha for some cultural outings including Shanga (a Lutheran school for disabled students), the Tanzanian cultural center, and shopping the Tanzanian way.

The group visited villages with Bishop Given and Reverend Lilian Gaula's (Baba and Mama). Some parish churches have a physical building that is completed (mud bricks, cut outs for windows and a metal roof), some just a structure of bricks forming a building, waiting for a roof. In one village, we worshiped under an acacia tree which felt like nature's cathedral.

Following our time in the villages worshipping with these precious people, the group went on safari to the Ngorongoro crater as well as the Serengeti plains. The Serengeti was a change from previous pilgrimages and will be revisited again since it was amazing!! (Here is Margaret's story we previously published.)

In this densely populated Muslim area, it is important to note that a group of Caucasian women coming on their own with a female priest speaks loudly in a culture where women, as a whole, do not have a voice. The women in Kondoa are the backbone of the Anglican Church and it gave them strength to see other women coming to be with them and encourage them.

Our spiritual leader was a Lutheran pastor. She baptized 247 people in the 5 villages as well as helping with a wedding and several confirmations. Throughout the pilgrimage, Lutherans and Anglicans intertwined in worshiping our God. A special part of this pilgrimage included a joint Anglican/Lutheran service during our visit to Dodoma, the nations' capital.

East Tennessee's diocese continues to work with the Anglican diocese of Rochester, England in helping to support this area of Tanzania which is extremely poor. As a diocese, we are channeling our funds to support the schools and women's empowerment program which have been established by Baba and Mama.

The St Peter and St Paul Primary School has become a highly regarded school and is thriving.

The secondary school in Chemba is scheduled to open January 15, 2026 after many delays caused by changes required by the Tanzanian government.

The Women's empowerment program helps young women develop skills in reading, sewing, cooking, entrepreneurial concepts as well as developing confidence in themselves. It is a 5 month program where they leave their families to live in Kondoa and build these skills.

Our relationship with Kondoa has been brought to the attention of The Episcopal Church Missionary Center to help encourage other dioceses to reach out to others to share the love of Christ. (Link)

The next pilgrimage will be set once the recent political unrest in Tanzania is settled. Kondoa itself, as well as safari sites, are all safe. It is the places we must travel through that have experienced some unrest. Tanzania has always been a safe country in which to travel. These latest events are quite disheartening!

For any questions, or interest in future pilgrimages, please contact Elizabeth Colonna, 423-552-1425, elizabethacolonna@gmail.com

Elizabeth Colonna

As we turn the clock on 2025 everyone here at Metropolitan Ministries would like to thank you for your generosity and prayers. Your support has made a significant difference in the lives of our neighbors, our volunteers, and our staff. As we begin a new year, we ask for your continued support in prayers, giving, and volunteering. Over the past three years, MetMin has worked through our strategic plan to further develop our core services since opening the Impact Hub. Our 4 pillars of service are home stabilization, homeless outreach, supportive services, and rehab, recovery, and housing.

Home Stabilization—to serve as an emergency assistance to prevent home eviction and utility disruption for the well-being of children and adults. MetMin provided $396,743 in financial assistance, serving 1592 households that impacted 1592 adults and 2035 children

Homeless Outreach Shelter and Housing—to provide a direct pathway from homelessness to stable housing through emergency shelter, housing forward, and relocation services. MetMin provided $124,134 in financial assistance, serving 404 Households that impacted 680 adults and 413 children.

Supportive Services—to provide wrap around services from supplemental nutrition, transportation, personal hygiene, clothing, showers, SNAP applications, etc.

MetMin provided $160,593 with providing 20,301 impacting 4810 Households impacting 6795 adults and 3709 children.

Rehab, Recovery and Housing—to provide safe and secure pathways to seek treatment for addiction by building bridge gaps with shelter, treatment facilities, transportation, and sober living. MetMin provided $15,257 in financial assistance, serving 91 households impacting 91 adults. MetMin assumed responsibility for the STEPTN program in 2025. The syringe exchange program focuses on the reduction of spreading communicable diseases, provides testing, education, and guidance, and builds trust through relationships that provide pathways to rehabilitation and recovery. Individuals who participate in this program are 60% more likely to seek treatment. Over 4000 individuals throughout Southeast Tennessee participate in this program.

Special Services provided to our guests include: The MetMin Chapel is held each Sunday at 11:30 and is followed by a hot meal. MetMin has begun our prayer team to lift up our guests, their needs, and requests. In 2025 we held Thanksgiving for 80 individuals here at the Impact Hub and on Christmas Day we had Christmas service followed by brunch for 70 individuals. Additionally over 70 children with toys, and 25 households with Thanksgiving meals. MetMin is able to do these special services through strategic and caring partnerships with churches, organizations, and individuals who believe in serving with hope, love, and grace.

Looking forward to 2026, MetMin is finalizing the purchase of the adjacent property for expansion, especially with an intention for housing. MetMin is working with a team to help place shelters at churches for those who are ready to begin transitional housing and supportive services with the support of a church congregation.

EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF EAST TENNESSEE

Report of Sewanee Trustees to the 2026 Diocesan Convention

The University of the South is the only institution of higher education founded and governed by the dioceses of the Episcopal Church. The bishops, clergy, and laity of more than two-dozen dioceses form the core of the University's Board of Trustees.

How does the Diocese of East Tennessee engage with the University?

The most recent University reports indicate that 105 students from the Diocese of East Tennessee are enrolled in the College, with an additional 4 Seminarians from the Diocese. Seventy-six School of Theology alumni serve in the Diocese, and there are 11 EFM groups. Financial support from our Diocese helps Sewanee meet its students' financial needs. 100% of seminarians who apply for financial aid receive support.

How do your Trustees serve the Board and the University?

Your Trustees serve on the following committees: Agenda Committee (Anna Graham), Church Support & Relations (The Rev. Matthew Farr), Enrollment & Student Success (Anna Graham, Chair), Orientation & Trustee Development (Anna Graham), and Resolutions & Memorials Committee (Sarah Johnson). Bishop Brian Cole also serves as a Regent. The Regents of the University establish, maintain, and govern the University in all ways other than those powers that are expressly vested in the Board of Trustees.

An update on the School of Theology

For the 2025-2026 academic year, the Seminary's residential enrollment stands at 67 students, an increase of 9 from 2024 and 21 from 2023. Advanced degree enrollment increased to 80, up 4 from 2024. The Summa Theological Debate Society welcomed 39 campers, up 14 from 2024 and 30 from 2023. Webinars and livestreamed lectures on the online lectures and webinars portal, launched last year, continue to offer theological education and free content to the Episcopal Church. The School of Theology now provides two new certificate programs. A Certificate of Advanced Study (with options in Liturgy or Preaching) is for Master of Divinity (M.Div.) clergy seeking advanced coursework alongside students in the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) program. The Certificate of Ministerial Studies, offered in a hybrid format, provides additional education and theological training for ordained clergy trained in local settings who wish to strengthen their professional and spiritual formation. Coursework includes study in liturgy, preaching, and parish administration. The completed renovation of Hamilton Hall has helped drive enrollment and interaction among students, faculty, and staff through upgraded classrooms, faculty offices in one location, and a shared space for gathering. Hiring Rev. Sara Ardrey-Graves as the new associate dean for spiritual and professional development signals a shift away from a focus solely on community life. This new role allows the associate dean to be more directly involved in shaping co-curricular educational experiences for seminarians preparing for both lay and ordained ministry.

An update on the College of Arts & Sciences

The 2025-2026 year marks several milestones in enrollment efforts. Fall 2025 welcomed 457 first-year students and 22 transfer students, bringing the total to 479 new students at the Mountain.

Testimonial Biographies

Ethan Garner, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Chattanooga

Hello! My name is Ethan Garner, and I am a current student at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. I have been serving as the youth and children's ministry intern at St. Paul's Chattanooga for around one and a half years now. I grew up Episcopalian, but I didn't feel as connected to the church until I got to college. Throughout each week, I began to appreciate the opportunities that working with the youth provided me. This allowed me to grow and discover new passions that I would have never been able to connect with if it weren't for the opportunity that I was given.

Freida Herron, St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Maryville

Freida Herron completed the Episcopal Preaching Foundation's Lay Preaching training program and is a Licensed Lay Preacher at St. Andrew's in Maryville. She has been a Lay Preaching instructor for the Diocese since 2024. Freida is on the St. Andrew's Vestry and has served the Family Promise, Youth Formation, and Warming Shelter ministries at the Parish. Before her retirement Freida was a Clinical Assistant Professor at the University of Tennessee's College of Social Work and a psychotherapist in Maryville. She and Susan Cooper live on Rich Mountain in Townsend on the boundary of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

Davyda Hammond, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Oak Ridge

Davyda Hammond is a member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Oak Ridge, TN. Vocationally, she is a safety engineer at Oak Ridge Associated Universities (ORAU) and a seminarian pursuing a Master of Divinity at Duke University. Davyda previously earned a Ph.D. in Environmental Health Engineering from the University of Alabama at Birmingham. Yet her true passion is ministering God's Word to others. Her heart is anchored in the truths of Colossians 3:23: "Whatever your task, work heartily, as serving the Lord and not men." She is married to Derrick Hammond, and they are proud parents of two adult daughters.

Workshop Descriptions

Friday Workshops

Safe Church Training

Friday February 20th, 12:00 PM

Church of the Ascension

All parochial clergy, church staff, and convention delegates are required to be in compliance and current with their Safe Church requirements by Saturday, February 21, 2026. To help with this the diocese will offer in-person training from 12:00-4:00 PM on Friday, February 20th at Church of the Ascension. This just in time opportunity is before Convention Eucharist. This training is for clergy, staff, and convention delegates who still need to complete their course requirements. Additional public in-person opportunities will be offered throughout 2026 and online training can be completed any time before the deadline.

For more information about Safe Church Requirements, visit: <https://dioet.org/safe-church/>. If you have any questions, contact your Parish Safe Church Coordinator or Emily Kirk, Diocesan Parish Support Specialist and Safe Church Administrator at ekirk@dioet.org or 865-966-2110.

Community CPR

Friday February 20th, 3:00 PM

Church of the Ascension

According to the American Heart Association, immediate CPR can double or even triple a person's chance of survival after cardiac arrest. To make this lifesaving skill accessible to as many people as possible, the diocese is offering a free Community CPR session. Attendees will have the chance to learn CPR and other vital lifesaving techniques from certified instructors and ask any questions they may have. Please note, this is not a formal certification course. If you are interested in receiving official certification or hosting a training session at your parish, please speak with the instructors on-site or contact a local organization.

Blower Test and Carbon Neutrality

Friday February 20th, 1:00 PM

Diocesan House

Join Bruce Glanville and members of the Carbon Neutrality Task Force for a demonstration of a "blower test", a method of finding and measuring building inefficiencies. Learn about how this testing method can increase your building efficiency, reducing your utility costs, and increasing your dollars for ministry. We'll also have information on carbon neutrality for parishes, our new carbon footprint assessment analysis process, and information on the solar installation with representatives from Solar Alliance. Participants will have time to travel to the Community CPR class should they wish to attend both.
